

Copyright and Use

Materials Provided by the Royal BC Museum and Archives

Teachers are permitted to download the files and print them for classroom use only.
The downloaded files and prints may not be shared, reproduced or used for any other purpose without permission from the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

All Other Third Party Materials

These materials were acquired from various sources and have been reproduced with permission.
They are intended for educational purposes only and the downloaded files and prints may not be shared, reproduced or used for any other purpose without permission from the copyright holders.

Media Included in Download Packages

Grade 10, Lesson 2

Video: Sojourns to Home

Excerpts from interview with Shirley Chan

Credit: RBCM

Audio: Interview with Charles Tobacco

Excerpt from interview with Charles Tobacco, a miner in the original Cumberland mines, reflecting on the inequality in pay for Chinese miners

Interview with Charles Tobacco. Cumberland History Project. (1975): Sound Clip T-4260_0015_1.
Courtesy of the Royal BC Museum and Archives, The Coal Tyee Society, and Cumberland Museum Collection.

Audio: Interview with Dick Mah

Dick Mah remembers his successful merchant grandfather Bing Kee in Nanaimo, a contrasting story to the poverty of the Chinese miners in Cumberland

Interview with Dick Mah. Cumberland History Project. (1983): Sound Clip T4051_0080_1.
Courtesy of The Coal Tyee Society, CHUB radio (<http://www.islandradio.bc.ca/contact.htm>), and the Royal BC Museum and Archives.

Video: Immigration to BC: Then and Now

Excerpts from interview with Shirley Chan

Credit: RBCM

Grade 10, Lesson 3

Video: Remembering School Segregation

Excerpts from an interview with Jon Joe (Chow) and Charlayne Thorton-Joe on school segregation
Credit: RBCM